CONFERENCES

Studying East and Southeast Europe as Area Studies: Paradigms - Themes - Methods for the 21st Century – Munich: 25-27 October 2018

Our priority has been to create a vibrant, interdisciplinary environment for successful doctoral projects and cutting-edge research on Eastern and Southeastern Europe, exploring the particularities of the countries, societies and cultures of this region. One of our basic premises has been a trans-regional perspective: East and Southeast Europe...\(Read more\)

Application deadline: 7 October 2018.

Making the New Man: Scientific and Artistic Experiments in the Russian Empire and the Soviet Union, 1900–1939 – St. Petersburg: 16-18 May 2019

The goal of our conference is to explore the fantastic visions of, and the actual experiments in, “making the new man” in one particular setting – the Russian Empire and the Soviet Union. The revolutionary transformations of 1917 boosted scientific fantasies of engineering human evolution, and the young Soviet republic of the 1920s... \(Read more\)

Application deadline: 20 October 2018.

Socialism – Experience and Remembrance – Potsdam: 21-22 February 2019

The socialist experience and its legacy is on everyone’s lips – be it as a template for the migration experience or as a possible explanation for the recent rise of populist and authoritarian parties in Europe. This ongoing debate as well as the 30th anniversary of the Fall of the Berlin Wall provide an opportunity to reflect on the experiences of Socialism in the former Eastern Bloc and to discuss... French association for Russian and Eastern European studies in social sciences “1989 In The East: Between Order and Subversion” – Paris: October 2019

The congress intends to re-examine the processes that led to the disintegration of communist regimes in the countries of Central and Eastern Europe as well as in the Balkans and the USSR. This disintegration appears to be the product of complex mobilizations based on new forms of action and it crossed the most established political borders... \(Read more\)

Radina Vučetić. Coca-Cola Socialism: Americanization of Yugoslav Culture in the Sixties

This book is about the Americanization of Yugoslav culture and everyday life during the nineteen-sixties. After falling out with the Eastern bloc, Tito turned to the United States for support and inspiration. \(Read More\)

Ivan Simić, Soviet Influences on Postwar Yugoslav Gender Policies

This book explores Soviet influences on Yugoslav gender policies, examining how Yugoslav communists interpreted, adapted and used Soviet ideas to change Yugoslav society. The book sheds new light on the role of Soviet models in producing Yugoslav family and reproductive laws, and in framing the understandings of gender which affected key policies...
