CONFERENCES

Youth Mobilisation and Political Change – Berlin: 28-29 November 2019

This workshop wishes to explore the role of youth in these two interrelated dimensions – youth as actor and symbol – bringing together scholars working on i) youth and political participation ii) social and political values of young people, iii) youth policies, and iv) the discursive meaning-making of youth. The workshop addresses these topics from a comparative angle looking closely at young people in moments of regime crisis. (Read more)

Solidarity at Work. International Conference – Berlin: 14-15 November 2019

This conference aims to explore the past, present and future of “solidarity at work” on both the conceptual and empirical level. Its focus is on the world of work, which it wants to investigate from a transnational perspective. How have the concepts, conceptions and categories of solidarity shaped labor and the labor movements of different countries? What about the divergent conceptual meanings and practices in these assorted... (Read more)

Theatres of War. The New Research in Military History Conference 2019 – Lanchester: 8-9 November 2019

Throughout history, strategists and warriors have had to fight not only their opponents but also the elements, across land, sea, and air. The operational environment has played a key role in devising and determining strategies and tactics and influenced the outcome of many battles, while war has had a dramatic impact on its physical environment.
